GENERAL INFORMATION

It is the candidate's responsibility to contact the State Controller’s Office, Examination Unit (916) 322-6203, three days prior to the written test date if the candidate has not received a Notice.

For an examination without a written feature it is the candidate's responsibility to contact the State Controller's Office, Examination Unit (916) 322-6203, three weeks after the final file date if the candidate has not received a progress Notice.

If a candidate's Notice of interview or Performance Test fails to arrive prior to the day of the interview due to verified postal error, the candidate will be rescheduled upon written request.

Applications are available at State Personnel Board offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department and the Department noted on the front.

If you meet the requirements stated on the reverse, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirement does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on the other side of this announcement will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

The State Controller’s Office reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service, if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all competitors will be notified.

Promotional Examination Only: Competition is limited to employees who have a permanent civil service appointment. Under certain circumstances other employees may be allowed to compete under provision of Rules 234, 235, and 235.2. State Personnel Board Rules 233, 234, 235, 235.2 and 237 contain provisions regarding civil service status and eligibility for promotional examinations. These rules may be reviewed at departmental personnel offices or at the Information Counter of State Personnel Board offices.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications, including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history, and fingerprinting may be required.

Criminal Record Clearance Information: Some positions, within various divisions of the State Controller's Office, are subject to fingerprinting and criminal records check requirements. This check will be completed by the Department of Justice. Applicants will be notified during the hiring process if the position is affected by the criminal records clearance procedure. Criminal record clearance is a condition of employment in positions affected by this procedure.

Interview Scope: If an interview is conducted, in addition to the scope described above, the panel will consider education, experience, personal development, personal traits, and fitness. In appraising experience, more weight will be given to the breadth and recency of pertinent experience and evidence of the candidate's ability to accept and fulfill increasing responsibilities than to the length of experience. Evaluation of a candidate's personal development will include consideration of their recognition of their own training needs; their plans for self-development; and the progress made in their efforts toward self-development.

Rule 235: An employee who has moved from one agency to another agency without a break in service may participate in the promotional examination for the agency from which that employee moved while employed under probationary status, limited-term appointment, or temporary authorization (TAU). If a promotional examination is being held for an agency to establish an employment list for an administrative, professional or technical class, an employee of another agency who is otherwise eligible may participate, if that employee had promotional eligibility in the designated agency at any time within three years of the date of the examination and has had no subsequent break in state service by resignation, non disability retirement or removal for cause.

High School Equivalence: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Education Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
